According to Idaho State Patrol report L515, on June 27, 2021, at approximately 2:45 a.m., Mr. Stout was pulled over for driving the wrong way down a one-way road in Lewiston, Idaho. During this traffic stop, a canine handler was brought on scene for support. The canine produced a positive alert for controlled substances. A search of the vehicle revealed a glass tube with white crystal-like residue. Mr. Stout was arrested for possession of paraphernalia and transported to the Nez Perce County Jail. When Mr. Stout was removed from the patrol vehicle, the arresting officer located a plastic baggy of methamphetamine on the floor of the vehicle. The officer reviewed the back-seat camera footage and observed Mr. Stout lift his body off the seat, extend his arms into his shorts and toss the controlled substance into the back seat in an attempt to hide it.
